

DOLS

DEPRIVATION OF LIBERTY SAFEGUARDS

THE IMPORTANCE OF GETTING IT RIGHT

sinclairslaw

SERJEANTS' INN

Where?

Sinclairslaw, Charles House, Churchill Way, Cardiff CF10 2HE

When?

Friday 9th June 2017
13.15 – 16.15

Who?

Kevin McManamon
Lisa Davies
Sarah Newport
Sinclairslaw

Anna Tkaczynska
Serjeants' Inn

How?

Telephone Sarah Newport on (029) 2038 8398 Or email s.newport@sinclairslaw.co.uk

Sinclairslaw solicitors and Serjeants' Inn chambers, are delighted to welcome you to this free seminar, which aims to increase awareness of the application of the DoLs procedure in practice.

Agenda:

13.15 – 13.30 Arrival
13.30 – 13.35 Welcome
13.35 – 14.15 What is DoLs?
The 'Cheshire West' case & its implications
Different types of deprivation of liberty
The players : roles & responsibilities
14.15 – 14.30 Your turn: a look at some case studies
14.30 – 14.50 Case study feedback
14.50 – 15.05 Break for refreshments
15.05 – 15.35 Counsel's views on recent case law
15.35 – 15.50 Panel discussion: Q&A
15.50 – 16.15 A chance to network

Your speakers:

Kevin McManamon

Kevin is an Associate Solicitor working in public law and legal aid. He practised previously in London at two highly regarded education law firms. He has ten years' experience advising on public law, education law and disability related matters and is instrumental in developing our Court of Protection practice in Wales. Kevin is listed in Chambers 2017 as 'an Associate to watch'.

Lisa Davies

Lisa heads Sinclairlaw's Private Client department in Wales and specialises in Wills & Probate, Trusts, Powers of Attorney and Court of Protection matters, with a particular emphasis on elder client law. She is a fully accredited member of Solicitors for the Elderly.

Sarah Newport

Sarah joined Sinclairlaw as a Trainee Solicitor in November 2015 and will be qualifying into Education, Public Law and Court of Protection in June 2017.

Anna Tkaczynska

Anna is a barrister who recently joined Serjeants' Inn chambers in London to broaden her practice in the areas of Education law and Court of Protection. She is 2008 call and has an established reputation in housing law with a particular interest in cases which raise public law, Equality Act and capacity issues.