

SINCLAIRSLAW Ltd

Chambers and Partners and Legal 500 ranked firm practising in Cardiff and London E1

We require a specialist education and public law
litigator in both our Cardiff and London Offices
(2 vacancies)

We are seeking a full-time litigation solicitor (preferably with 2-5 years PQE) in both our London and Cardiff Offices to handle a diverse and interesting caseload which is part of our education and public law practices. The role will involve advising clients on a variety litigation matters in relation to schools, universities, and other education providers as well as local authorities and central government bodies. The work will include breach of contract, negligence, discrimination, Tribunal appeals, human rights cases and judicial review. The successful candidate will join a successful and growing team which is based in Cardiff and London but can operate remotely. The appointee will need to demonstrate the ability to handle their own cases and commercial awareness, including a proven record of developing a privately funded caseload together with experience of legal aid. Competitive salary (depending on experience)
Starting date: Preferably December 2021

Requirements: -

At least 2 years PQE in civil litigation

Proven ability to manage a profitable caseload of mixed private and legal aid work.

Strong communication skills

Preferred: -

Experience in bringing/defending civil claims against/on behalf of schools, universities, or public bodies.

Experience in bringing/defending claims based on the Equality Act 2010

Knowledge of the education sector

Contact e.monteiro@sinclairslaw.co.uk with a CV and covering letter.

Closing date 12th November 2021, although applications will be considered as they are received; so we encourage any interested applicants to apply promptly.